As he was approaching his own death, William Booth, the founder of The Salvation Army still had the passion to help the poor, oppressed, disenfranchised, and those receiving no justice as he spoke these words:

“While women weep, as they do now, I’ll fight; While little children go hungry, as they do now, I’ll fight; While men go to prison, in and out, in and out, as they do now, I’ll fight; While there is a drunkard left, while there is a poor lost girl upon the streets, while there remains one dark soul without the light of God, I’ll fight, I’ll fight to the very end!”

Let us not ask ‘why’ a person is suffering, let us just see a suffering soul and have it stir our heart to render aid. Please join us in this righteous fight!

Your Salvation Army is operated by the power of volunteers and your generous donations, please continue to support your Army...

DOING THE MOST GOOD™

Dear Friends,

As you can see from our annual report, 2007 was a very busy year for the Salvation Army. With your support, our dedicated staff has been able to expand and build upon the services and programs here in Williamsport.

We are proud of what we were able to accomplish. Our programs meet immediate needs, as well as, develop the personal tools that lead to a life of self-sufficiency.

The key to our success is you. Your time, talent and financial gifts enable us to provide the support our community so desperately needs. On behalf of the Salvation Army Board and Staff, I thank you for your continued support this past year. With your continued generosity, we will remain committed to meeting the needs of our community.

Sincerely,

Christian H. DeWald — Advisory Board Chairman

DOING THE MOST GOOD™

A vital component of The Salvation Army's mission is to "meet human need in His name without discrimination." The Army's commitment to justice was expressed in 1890 by the organization's founder, William Booth, in his "Cab Horse Charter:"

"... every Cab Horse in London has Three things: a shelter for the night, food for its stomach, and work allotted to it by which it can earn its corn. These are the two points of the Cab Horse's Charter. When he is down he is helped up, and while he lives he has food, shelter and work. That, although a humble standard, is at present absolutely unattainable by millions of our fellow men and women in this country."

From Betterment to Development: The Salvation Army has done a great deal to make our community better. Our programs now reflect our desire to be a part of community development. We will lead by developing jobs, job training, schooling, fair commerce, safe housing and safe neighborhoods in our great city.
